

Best of OKC in 48 Hours

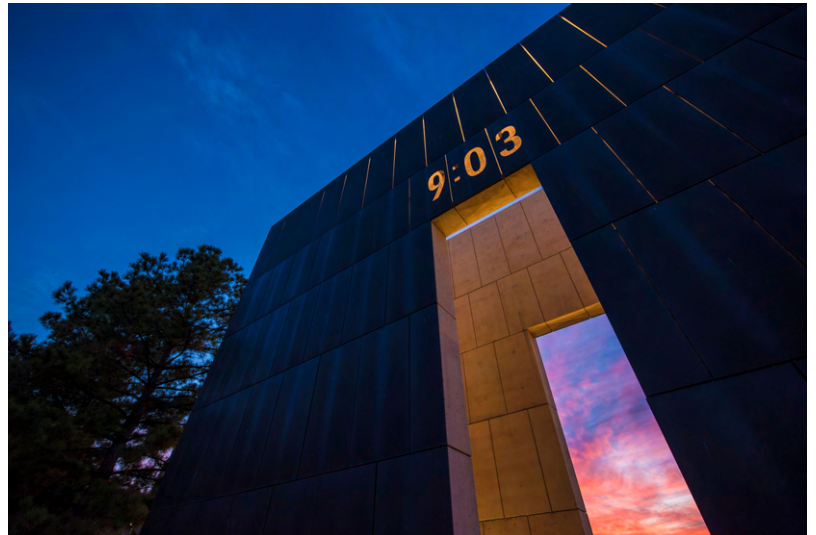

Day 1

Hunny Bunny Biscuit Company Breakfast

- Enjoy made from scratch delicious biscuits
- Try the Cinnamon Roll Biscuit or the decadent Velvet Elvis
- Centrally located on 23rd street making it easy to get to your next stop

Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum

- Tour the Museum and reflect on the events of April 19, 1995
- Learn through powerful exhibits and firsthand stories of hope, healing and unity
- Pause at the Survivor Tree to remember lives lost and honor those changed forever

visitokc.com/
travel-trade/

VISIT
OKLAHOMA CITY
— THE MODERN FRONTIER —

Angel Green, CTE
Director of Leisure Sales
agreen@visitokc.com

Route 66

- Cruise down historic Route 66 in Oklahoma City
- Take selfies at the iconic stops along the Mother Road
- See the Gold Dome, Milk Bottle Building and the Asian District

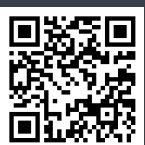

39 Restaurant Lunch

- Enjoy indigenous inspired cuisine located inside First Americans Museum
- Emmy Award-winning Chef Loretta Barrett Oden brings culinary artistry
- Dig into signature dishes like the Hominy Stew, Rabbit Tamal, or the Three Sisters Sauté

First Americans Museum

- Delve into the history of Oklahoma's 39 tribal nations, each with unique stories and cultures
- Experience over 175,000 square feet of award winning exhibitions
- Engage with the newly opened interactive FAMiLy Discover Center
- Located in Oklahoma City's Horizons District

visitokc.com/
travel-trade/

VISIT
OKLAHOMA CITY
— THE MODERN FRONTIER —

Angel Green, CTE
Director of Leisure Sales
agreen@visitokc.com

National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum

- Explore the vast Western art collection, featuring iconic paintings and sculptures
- Discover the story of Western expansion and life on the frontier
- Experience the Native American exhibits, showcasing art, history and culture

Stockyards City

- Stroll the historic Stockyards City
- See specialty stores like Shorty's Caboy Hattery
- Shop the many western wear outfitters
- Grab a drink at McClintock's beautifully restored bar

Cattlemen's Steakhouse Dinner

- Dig in at the historic Cattlemen's Steakhouse, located in Stockyards City since 1910
- Order the "Presidential Choice" T-Bone or the acclaimed chicken fried steak
- Cattlemen's has hosted celebrities like John Wayne, US Presidents, Reba McEntire and more

visitokc.com/
travel-trade/

VISIT
OKLAHOMA CITY
— THE MODERN FRONTIER —

Angel Green, CTE
Director of Leisure Sales
agreen@visitokc.com

Wheeler District Ferris Wheel

- Ride the iconic Ferris wheel that once stood at the Santa Monica Pier at the end of Route 66
- Take in the views of downtown Oklahoma City

Day 2

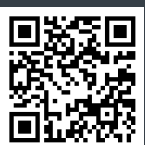

Harvey Bakery Breakfast

- Start your day with freshly baked pastries and a hot latte
- Get a front row view and watch the bakers in action
- From 1946 to 1955 the building was a Chrysler Plymouth dealership showroom

The American Banjo Museum

- View the world's largest collection of banjos
- Learn about the instrument's evolution from the simple design of the 1600s to the ornately decorated four-strings of the 1920's and 30's
- Located in the Bricktown Entertainment District

visitokc.com/
travel-trade/

VISIT
OKLAHOMA CITY
— THE MODERN FRONTIER —

Angel Green, CTE
Director of Leisure Sales
agreen@visitokc.com

Bricktown Canal Water Taxi

- Enjoy a leisurely tour on the Bricktown Water Taxis
- Hear stories from guides about the history of the area
- Snap pictures from the boat of the Centennial Land Run Monument

Oklahoma State Capitol

- Enjoy a free guided tour of the only state capitol located on Route 66
- See the Oklahoma State Capitol Museum
- View famous artworks displayed throughout the building

Toby Keith's I Love This Bar and Grill

- Enjoy a homestyle meal in the heart of the Bricktown Entertainment District
- Catch live music in this laid back honky-tonk
- Explore Toby Keith memorabilia

RIVERSPORT OKC

- Ride class II to IV rapids in OKC's world class man-made rapids course
- Future venue of the LA28 Games
- Conquer the 80-foot Sky Trail ropes course
- Ride the wave at RIVERSPORTS FlowRider wave machine

Paseo District

- Stroll the 20+ art galleries in the district
- Snap photos of the unique Spanish Revival architecture
- Take a class and get hands-on with painting or ceramics
- Dine at one of the many popular restaurants like the Paseo Grill or FRIDA southwest
- Grab a nightcap at the Flamingo TIKI Room

visitokc.com/
travel-trade/

VISIT
OKLAHOMA CITY
— THE MODERN FRONTIER —

Angel Green, CTE
Director of Leisure Sales
agreen@visitokc.com