■ BEER ■

Savor the passion and distinct Southern flavors our brewmasters pour into their locally crafted beer. Sample your way through homegrown stouts, IPAs, ales and lagers, and discover why beer lovers count South Carolina among their favorite places to kick back and enjoy a cold one.

■ DID YOU KNOW? ■

The oldest known recipe for beer dates back more than 4,000 years. You never have to travel far in the Palmetto State for a pint of this age-old beverage.

■ WINE ■

What's better than relaxing and enjoying the breathtaking views of the Palmetto State? Doing it with a glass of your favorite wine in hand. South Carolina's wineries offer locals and visitors alike many refreshing varieties of wine, including the state's famous sweet muscadine wines.

■ DID YOU KNOW? ■

South Carolina's warm and humid climate is the perfect environment for cultivating muscadine grapes, which also require a fair amount of sunshine.

■ SPIRITS ■

Experience the allure of some of the South's greatest spirits, and get a taste of exactly what the Palmetto State is made of. Sip on lightly aged gins in the Midlands, travel to the Lowcountry for a taste of sweet tea vodka or head to the Upstate for some South Carolina moonshine.

■ DID YOU KNOW? ■

Moonshine, yes, it's legal! In 2009, South Carolina lawmakers passed the state's microdistillery law, which allows distillers to legally produce and sell 'shine in the Palmetto State.

■ BEVERAGES ■

From homemade apple cider and artisanal sodas to farm-fresh milk and the Palmetto State's famous sweet tea, there's an authentic South Carolina beverage that's perfect for every palate. Southern tradition never tasted so good.

Milk is the official State Beverage of South Carolina! Tour one of the Palmetto State's dairy farms for a taste of South Carolina's state drink.
